To whom it may concern:

Music is a very powerful form of cultural expression which in the hands of talented individuals can not only entertain, but raise consciousness as well. Dr. Sam and his Managed Care Blues Band possess rare and creative talent which passes into the realm of genius in the song, "You Picked A Fine Time To Leave Me Blue Shield". With his ingenuity and wit, Dr. Sam, has the potential to alert millions of people to ominous trends in our health care industry and serve as a catalyst for change. I highly recommend Dr. Sam to any group, especially opinion leaders, government officials, and others who can help shape the direction of our health care policy.

Sincerely,
